Forecast for Tuesday 20 Jun 2023

Weather: A dry and bright start to the day but an area of rain spreads north over the Lake District during the middle of the day, this will move away north to leave a dry evening with sunny spells later.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 90% patchy low cloud at times in the morning, falling to 60% in the period of rain and then increasing again later.

Low cloud and visibility: Some patchy low cloud above 600m in the morning will mostly lift and clear, mostly cloud remaining above the summits but likely to lower to 5-600m for a time in the heavier rain. Good visibility is expected although turning poor in rain before improving again later.
